City hosts luncheon

The Greater Sudbury Chamber of Commerce will host a luncheon with entrepreneur and inventor, Ron Foxcroft, CEO of Fox 40 International Inc. and Fluke Transportation on April 2 at 12 p.m. at Brystons on the Park in Copper Cliff.

Foxcroft is a professional referee turned inventor. He invented the Fox 40 pealess whistle and he sells 40,000 whistles daily in 140 countries.

Tickets for the two-hour luncheon are $30 plus GST for chamber members and $50 plus GST for non-chamber members. For more information or to purchase tickets, contact Lori Lepage, at 673-7133, ext. 224.
