Chamber has new faces

Eight new faces will soon be sitting around the table at Greater Sudbury Chamber of Commerce board meetings.

Elected earlier this spring, the eight are Kathryn Barker of La Renaissance European Day Spa; Darren Digby of Bell Aliant; Tracy Nutt of Servicemaster of Sudbury; Brent Taylor of Bridges by Brother Ts; Mark Trevisiol of Xstrata Nickel; Wendy Watson of Big Daddy Radio; Mark Weiman of Collins Barrow; and Kathy Wells McNeil of Total Nursing Care.

The eight new directors will start their two-year terms of office following a swearing-in ceremony in early July. They will join eight existing members who are now in the second-year of their two-year terms.

Barker said she will look to be a voice for the city's small business sector.
