Honourable Rick Bartolucci to Speak About His New Portfolio

January 17, 2008 (Sudbury, ON) -- The Greater Sudbury Chamber of Commerce will host the new Minister of Community Safety & Correctional Services, Rick Bartolucci at a luncheon at the Idylwylde Golf and Country Club on January 22nd.

The Honourable Rick Bartolucci was re-appointed into the provincial cabinet in November 2007 as the new Minister of Community Safety & Correctional Services. He previously served as the Minister of Northern Development and Mines where he worked diligently to ensure that the issues important to the Sudbury riding were heard at Queen's Park.

As the new Minister of Community Safety & Correctional Services his responsibilities include overseeing Ontario's police services, provincial jails and the supervision and rehabilitation of adult offenders, public safety initiatives such as fire investigation and prevention, coroner's services, emergency preparedness and response.

Mr. Bartolucci will be discussing his new portfolio as well as his plans for his constituency.

Tickets for the luncheon are $30 + GST for chamber members or $50 + GST for future chamber members. The luncheon runs from noon until 2 p.m. and is open to all chamber of commerce members and the general public. For more information or to purchase tickets, contact Lori Lepage, Marketing and Promotions Coordinator, at (705) 673-7133 ext. 224 or by e-mail to lori@sudburychamber.ca.
